Stop Catarrh!

Use Hyomei—You Breathe It.

Unless properly treated this disease often leads to a serious if not fatal ailment. It is needless to allow catarrh to ruin your health—use Hyomei—it is certainly effective relief for catarrhitis. It's the direct-to-the-spot treatment.
You breathe it—no stomach dosing.
No household should be without Hyomei. It not only gives quick and lasting benefit in cases of catarrh, but is one of the surest and most pleasant treatments for head colds, sniffles or croup of children.

Hyomei is a combination of antiseptic oils you breathe it—using a small inhaler. The al-lergenic action of Hyomei soothes, cleans and vitalizes the sore, raw and inflamed membrane of the breathing organs almost immediately. There is no other remedy that benefits so surely or so quickly. Money refunded by Dr.
O'Donnell if you're not satisfied.

Do not be without Hyomei another day. Drug stores everywhere sell it. Get the complete set of $1.00 size—this contains the inhaler and bottle of liquid.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

CONGRESSIONAL CLUB WILL GIVE RECEPTION TONIGHT.

Buffet Luncheon for Girls to Meet Visiting Guest—Dances.

Notes.

The Congressional Club will entertain at a reception tonight for the Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark. The latter, however, will not be present, as she was called away recently to her home in Missouri, and her place will be taken by Miss Genevieve Clark.

Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland, wife of Representative Knowland, gave a buffet luncheon today for thirty-five young girls of the congressional circle in compliment to her daughter, Miss Eleanor Knowland, and their house guest, Miss Annie Lou Mears of Texas. The dining room and the table had a St. Valentine day decoration of hearts and flowers. The hostess was gowned in green chamoise with an overdress of Venetian lace, and Miss Knowland wore lavender satin. Miss Mears was in sapphire blue chamoise. Mrs.
Timothy Ansberry, Mrs. Moses P. Kim-bald and Mrs. Fred A. Britten assisted.

Mrs. Henry Haywood Glasse and Miss Mary R. Wilcox have invitations out for Monday, February 23, from 5 to 7, for a tea dance at the Congressional Club, in honor of Miss Caffery.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusseume will give a dinner to evening the embassy. Their list of guests will include the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, the assistant secretary of war and Mrs. Breckinridge, the Japanese ambassador, and Viscountess Chinda, Capt. and Mrs. Jayne, Maj. and Mrs.
John H. Russell, Capt. and Mrs. Heathcote Grant of the British embassy, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Capt. Boy-Ed of the German embassy, Mr. and Mrs. Scherbatov of the Russian embassy, Commandant Maximilian Burstin of the Austrian embassy, and Mrs. Willard.
Miss Adams and Capt. and Commandant de Savigny of the French embassy.

Mrs. Ashurst and Mrs. Kenyon will receive informally tomorrow at 1522 Park road northwest.

Mrs. P. J. Lennox, wife of Dr. Lennox of the Catholic University, entertained yesterday at one of the most delightful feasts of the winter when the friends of this hospitable couple gathered to meet Miss Genevieve Clark, the daughter of Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark. The friendship between the two families has existed since the coming of this host and hostess here to live, and was cemented at a subsequent visit of Mrs. Clark to Ireland, a few years ago, while Dr. and Mrs. Lennox were staying at their old home at the Irish capital during a summer vacation.

The reception yesterday brought together several hundred guests in the Lennox apartment at the Toronto, and a lovely decoration of pink roses and carnations was in place with palms and Marian plants. Mrs. Lennox, in a gown of black velvet with the bodice of black tulle lace over white chiffon, and wearing diamond and pearl ornaments, and the lovely young daughter of the Speaker, who was daintily dressed in white over pale pink chiffon, with a touch of old blue in the girl's received together in the drawing room.

A group of young girls from the congressional circle, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Katherine Phelan, Miss Murdoch, Miss Katherine Phelan, Miss Jean Roberts, Miss Marie Sims and Miss Laura Lennox—representing all parts of the country, and the dining room and in the library.

Mrs. Harry C. Woodward and Mrs.
Frank H. Hines also assisted.
William C. Gwynn and Mrs. Samuel Beverly Williamson did the honors at New York and Mrs. George W. Dublin piece was of Killarney roses in a silver bowl, a part of the splendid silver service given Mrs. Lennox by the Dublin friends before coming to this country.

The company reflected the many-sided aspect of Washington society and was made up of interesting people, represents diplomatic, official and resident life.

Mrs. Merriman and Miss Adams will be at home tomorrow and Thursday, February 19, at 1621 New Hampshire avenue.

Miss Phyllis Moore, who went to Baltimore yesterday, attended the Bachelors' cotillon there last night.

Mrs. P. H. Kelly of Michigan, Mrs.
George M. Young and Miss Norton of North Dakota, Mrs. Edmund Platt of New York and Mrs. George W. Dublin of Minnesota will be at home with Mrs.
John Burke, wife of the United States attorney, February 17, from 3 to 6.

Mrs. Lester A. Barr and Miss Barr will be at home tomorrow, and will have Mrs.
Shafroth of Colorado receiving with them.

Mrs. Edgar Frisby and Miss Frisby will be at home Thursday, February 19.

Mrs. William Alden Smith will receive tomorrow for the last time this season.

Mrs. Thomas, wife of Senator Thomas, will not receive tomorrow.

Mrs. J. M. Culp has as her guests her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
O. H. Porter, Jr., of the United States and Mrs. Hugh Graham Miller of New York.

Miss Mary Mausly of Frederick, Md., is the guest of Col. and Mrs. Black at the Hotel George.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holmes, Mrs.
George W. Roney, Mrs. Annie L. Hines and Mrs. Leonard H. Mitchell are sailing tomorrow on the Grosser Kur-ven, to the coast of the West Indies and Panama canal.

Mrs. Thomas W. Power will be at home Wednesday, February 18. Mrs.
John Petty will receive, with Mrs.
Pettit, the parents of the former, Mrs. of Baltimore will be among those assisting.

Mrs. Beall, wife of Col. Fielder M. M.
Beall, entertained yesterday afternoon at her home in Chevy Chase at an auction tea.

Mrs. L. B. Thompson entertained a large number of friends at a tea yesterday at her home, 3423 16th street.
The spacious parlors were decorated with southern smilax and red carnations. Mrs. Thompson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Alfred Ray; her daughter, Mrs. Henry C. Gibbs, and her sisters, Mrs. W. L. Saul and Mrs. J. F.
Wilson of Kensington. The piano music was added to the charm of the occasion.

Mrs. Myer Levi and daughter, Miss Beatrice Levi, of Rutherfordton, N. C., are visiting the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. Burnside, of 122 1/2 street northwest.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Richardson have cards out for the 21st in honor of the birthday of Pennsylvania's Chief of which alumni Dr. Richardson is president.

The art section of the Twentieth Century Club will meet tomorrow at 5 o'clock at the home of the leader, Mrs. Dayton of the section for the winter has been the study of French art from France I to the present day. Tomorrow's meeting will deal with art at the time of the French revolution.

The engagement is announced of Miss Teresa Dorothy Lane and Mr. James Leo Hanson of Medina, N. Y.

Mrs. Bankhead, wife of Senator Bankhead, will not receive tomorrow.

A sixty-couple cotillon was danced last night at Rauscher's and revived all the old-time charm of the organization, which in years gone by was one of the chief events anticipated by debutantes and dancing men in residential society each
